There never was a time, since the De mecracy of West Virginia entered upon Greets the Plumed Knight of the an era of "retrenchment and reform." when the people who are opposed to Bourbon rule had so much reason to put On His Triumphal Tour Through

If every man who feels that way about day next, every hope will be realized. Victory is not assured, but it is within

If the people want a triumph over the faction of the Democratic party which has broken the law in a desperate effort to cover up the evidences of misrule-if they want the sweet satisfaction of teaching over all rulers-they can have it.

What do the people say? Now hear the Democracy shout that "Charley Caldwell was never no good no the Lincoln Club will stir things up in Wheeling next Saturday night. To-pay Mr. Blaine will be in Wheeling for a short time, and the people will see him at Capitol Square. One o'clock is the want the votes of Republicans. He isn't likely to get them. And some able Democratic votes will turn up missing on elec-

WHEN those Parkersburg Democrate asked Charley Caldwell how much he was paid for making a Republican speech, they Din Judge Brannon join with the other able Democrats who wouldn't allow Mr. Randall to speak at Clarksburg because they are making a free trade fight in that

Is the people of West Virginia can't get control of their own affairs they may as well move out and let the tax-enters occupy the land. But the people needn't nove out if they don't want to.

THE Governor of West Virginia ought to be a man of dignity, who can take the stump without making a proud young State bow her head in shaine. Mr. Willis Wilson is not that kind of a man.

West Virginia. He has not disappointed those who thought he would set the Kanawha Valley on fire. This double-head-

SENATOR GORMAN isn't very bounding ing in his hope of carrying West Virginia, comes to Ohio. Is this the able Senator's way of discounting defeat, think you?

An increasing debt is one of the fruits of Bourbon rule in West Virginia. In 1883 the expenditures exceeded the receipts by nearly $100,000. The returns for 1884 are not in yet, but they are not likely to be encouraging. The debt grows every year.

says the Irish Nation, "will send grief and humiliation to the heart of England." It will indeed. That is why every West ought to poll a Republican vote in Octo-

It is difficult to tell how much Mr. Wil lia Wilson will be helped by Mr. James M.
Mason's support of him. There may be more persons than we think who want in favor of the hands of Mr. Mason's Wall street syn-

Mr. BLAINE seems to have "hit 'em hard" all along the line. The "personal magnetism" that does it is the popular admiration of solid manhood and high-the docs for cold cash. In West Virginia Henry S. Walker is the "bright particular ton.

The entrance of the train into Marion star" that does the most twinkling for E. Willis Wilson. Walker's price is $40 a speech, and they do say that he insists on having the cash before the curtain goes up.

At Farmington this scene was repeated. Fairmont presented a magnificent scene. As the train rolled in the hillsides were tarraced with masses of men, women and floats for cold cash. In West Virginia

READ Mr. Blaine's short and apt speches on his West Virginia tour—everyone of them is a ten strike. The people who hear him listen to the greatest living Logan.

As the train Folice in the initisdes were carried with masses of men, women and children, while the bridge was filled. A stand had been erected at a platform decorated with pictures of Blaine, Garfield and Logan. American. Not even Henry Clay surpassed him in any attribute of the statesman, and Clay missed the reward which

The Intelligencer: ONE VAST OVATION

From Wheeling to Grafton and Back to Parkersburg

the Mountain State. it will do his full duty from now till Tues- Enthusiastic Crowds Gather at

Every Station

To Give Him a Cordial Welcome and Warm Farewell.

Strong Speeches at Several of the Towns En Route. He Asks the People to Vote for

Judge Maxwell

And the Protection of American Industries.

The Switzerland of America Boom ing for Blaine.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., October 6 .- The ovations tendered Mr. Blaine by the people of the eight counties along the Baltimore & Ohio road did not differ materially from others withressed in New York and Ohio except in numbers. The regions that you possessed a capitalized wealth to gone through in this State are sparsely settled compared with the two States through which he has just passed, but the outpouring of the people was marvelous. Notable demonstrations were made at Moundsville, Cameron, Mannington, Fair, mont, Grafton, Clarksburg and Parkers. mont, Grafton, Clarksburg and Parkers

The crush at these places was great anthe enthusiasm unbounded, the day's ask him as a candid man what agency was ride culminating in a rousing reception in it that nerved the arm of industry to smi e the carmine-hued city of Parkersburg.

Mr. Blaine has expressed himself as Leaving Wheeling, the workmen in the Leaving Wheeling, the workmen in the mills along the route, from the Riverside iron works to Hobbs, Brockunier & Co.'s glass works, rushed out and cheered lustify for the "Plumed Knight."

Colonel Travis, at the LaBelle mill, as the train passed that point, called out to a man on board: "Take care of him; you have got precious freight."

The first stop was made at Moundsville and he says it off rather short when he form of the car. The people rushed up shaken tired now."

After an introduction by Mr. Cowden, Mr. Blaine spoke briefly of the importance of the tariff issue to the State industries; and as the train moved off the large crowd cheered the departing chief MR. BLAINE'S FIRST SPEECH At Moundsville Mr. Blaine said: I am county. I am glad to be in West Virginia. Virginian who feels that way about it I consider it one of the encouraging signs going on in what was once a stave state for the ascendency of Republican principles; and Republican principles this year mean a tariff for the protection of Amerimean a tariff for the protection of Amerimean a tariff the protection of Amerimean at tariff the unust give to a protective pless and the protection of is opposed to it, she is not Republican. The decision rests with her citizens. I know no State in the Union more directly interested in the promotion of manufacture than your State. Your rich beds of coal and iron, your vast forests, all your natural resources, favor the greatdevelopment of manufacturing industries. They can be developed under protective tariff. They cannot be without it."

At Cameron was another large crowd. Mr. Blaine was introduced by Dr. T. H. Logan. The enthusiasm here was unbounded, and Blaine waved his hat as the train pulled out to the music of cheers.

this vast wealth.

Cam Schuzz is the "big card" of the United States!" They were given with hearty good will.

Cleveland show. Carl's "liquid ditty" the conduction of the United States!" They were given with hearty good will.

There was a like demonstration at Bur-

AT FAIRMONT.

Governor Pierpont introduced Blaine

Stover at the throttle valve. Fifty miles an hour was the rate maintained for some plus Poland.

Mr. Blaine was greatly pleased with the numbers that greeted him at Grafton.

At monster greeting was received distance. A monster greeting was received made. A monster greeting was received there, nearly six thousand people being present. The crush at the train was fearful and dangerous.

Mr. Blaine was escorted to a stand in Mr. Blaine was escorted to a stand in the town and introduced by Hon. John W. Mason. He addressed the crowd for ifteen minutes on the tariff. BLAINE TALKS TARIFF.

An Eloquent Speech Full of Home PARKERSBURG, W. VA., October 6 .-

ble for its local allusions and its eloquence. CITIZENS OF WEST VIRGINIA-AS YOUR distinguished chairman has intimated, I am not a stranger to your State. I have known it personally for more than forty years, and I have known this section of it well. I was born on the banks of yonder river, a few miles below the point where it enters Pennsylvania, and you do not need to be told, by me that there was always a unity of feeling among the inhabitants of the Monongahela Valley, [Cheers.] But I do not see before me the West Virginia which I knew in my boyhood. The West Virginia of forty years ago was comparatively a wilderness. The West Virginia of to-day is a prosperous industrial centre in the United States. [Applanse.] known it personally for more than forty

West Virginia as an independent com onwealth began her existence during monwealth began her existence during the civil war, and at that day the most liberal estimate of the total property, according to the enumeration of the United States census, did not exceed one hundered million of dollars. In 1870 the census gave you an aggregate of one hundred and ninety millions, and in 1880 it showed that you possessed a capitalized wealth to the amount of three hundred and fifty millions of dollars. From the close of the war to the year 1880 West Virginia had therefore gained in wealth the enor-

AN ELOQUENT PASSAGE. Probably some political opponent does me the honor to listen to me, and I wou'd the mountain and create this wealth in

Mr. Blaine has expressed himself as greatly pleased with the manifestations of friendship shewn by the people of West Virginia, and towards the latter end of the journey grew exceeding happy in his remarks. His presence in the State has been worth many votes to the Republican party.

Mr. Blaine's condition.

He stood the fatigue of the journey remarkably well, his voice being as fresh and his eye as bright if not brighter than when he left Wheeling.

Leaving Wheeling, the weakers is the greatly pleased this wealth in West Virginia and create this wealth in the staff [Renewed cheering.] Refore the wait of Created hering in Adam circulating in your midsta bank bill that would pass enrent a hundred miles from home. [Voice: "That's so" and cheers.] You do not to day have a single piece of paper money circulating in West Virginia that is not good all around the globe. [Cheers.] Not a bill that will not pass current in the money markets of Europe as readily as in New York or Baltimore; so that a man who works for a day's wages knows when Saturday comes that lie is to be paid in good money. [Renewed cheering.]

wealth in your forests have been brought

I go further: I do not know the Demo-

AN APPEAL TO THE NEW SOUTH.

newed cheering,] and I am appealing to magnetism" that does it is the popular admiration of solid manhood and high-grade statesmanship. The American people know an out-and-out American when they see him.

At Cameron was another large crowd. Mr. Blaine was introduced by Dr. T. H. Logan. The enthusiasm here was unbounded, and Blaine waved his hat as a bounded, and Blaine waved his hat as a the train pulled out to the music of the respective training. The park DOMAIN.

The DARK DOMAIN.

The DARK DOMAIN.

The dark Democratic domain of Wetzel was entered and the first stop made at Littleton, where in spite of faint cheers of Democratis for Cleveland the Republicant late way. She can break this seemingly impregnable barrier of the suggestion of a man who proposed "Three suggestion of a man who propos West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition

THE SOLID SOUTH. Solid on what? Solid on a prejudice, solid on a tradition, solid upon doctrines that separated different portions of the Union-whereas I invite you to join in a union not merely in form, but a union in fact, and take your part in the solution of the industrial and financial problems of the time. [Great cheering.] If West Vir-ginia takes that course on the 14th day of October she will do much to settle the controversies that now agitate us.

THE ISSUE BROUGHT HOME.

Governor Fierpost introduced Blaic, and Clay mised the reward his happiest veil in this State Eligopology. Between 1870 and 1889 you will gain much the popule intendanced Blaic, the population of the population and the population of the state of the stat money. Between 1870 and 1880 you who spoke in his happiest vein. At the gained in this State $160,000,000; between rush of the people was tremendous. They piled across the car platforms in a mad struggle to get a sight of Mr. Blaine.

And Along the Route From Grafton to Park

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., October 6 .-

A small colored boy pushed frantically through the crowd, crying: "They've got him; they've got him and gone away with him. Let me through or I'll never get to see him!" get to see him!"
This convulsed the crowd, but the colored boy got there.

Mr. Blaine was introduced by J. Philip Clifford and made a brief speech.

MINISTERS JOIN THE PARTY. The ministers of the West Virginia Conerence met the train here. Bishop Wal-

University, went to Parkersburg with the pers of the Conference, only six would just as the train stopped and touched it off. It sounded like a mortar and scattered like a shot gun. At Ellenboro an enthusiastic party was present. Blaine received a number of floral tributes. His shortest, happiest and wittiest speech of the trip ras made here.

Do you want to continue the prosperity

this train to do but to move on."

With this Blaine pulled the bell rope come necessary, bimself, and the train moved off amid loud cheers and good-humored laughter from the crowd, while the members of the purty congratulated Mr. Blaine on his happy hit.

Stops were made at Cairo, Petroleum and Laurel Fork. "LAN" MEETS WITH AN ADVENTURE.

The only thing in the nature of an accident on the trip happened here. The cor-respondent of the Register got out of the residence of H. H. Moss, cashier of the Parkersburg National Bank, whose guest he will be while in the city. J. E. D.

PROUD PARKERSBURG

from the public platform renouncing all from the public platform renouncing all ward to be the Democratic candidate for allegiance to the Democratic party. He President, It was at once said that Ohic

FORCIBLE REASONS He gave as his reasons for his change the nefficiency of the State government, the unlawful reassessment and revaluation of lands, the plundered school fund and the contemptible Supreme Court.

He predicted that the election of Wilson would drive capital away from the State which is now knocking at our doors, and that he for one was going to throw off the yoke of mossback bourbonism and hereafter consort with the party of progress.

When hooted at by the enraged Demo crats he said: "Why do you curse me ing to the terms of the Morrison bill You say the Democrats are going to win would cost West Virginia a vast sum of any how. My departure will leave a hole for one more Democratic officeholder."

THE SPEECH MAKES A SENSATION.

At the conclusion the air was again rent with cheers. Blaine went to Marietta on a special train, where Ohio duplicated West Virginia's ovation to the next President of PAREREBURG, W. VA., October 6.—

At Bridgeport a good crowd was present and cheered heartily.
Four thousand were present at Clarksburg. General Goff's native town did itself proud in the welcome extended to the great commoner. Blaine was captured by a committee and taken to a living mass of human beings. Parkersburg went quietly to sleep to-night, satisfied with an event which will bear fruit in October and November.

Mr. Blaine meets the special train on the Ohio River road to-morrow at Williamstown and then proceeds to Wheeling. Judge Tenny, of Brookin, followed Blaine here, and was heartily applieded. Nothing occurred to mar the occasion, the best of order prevailing, although the streets were packed with a round on the other side of the depot. The rush of the people was tremendous. They piled across the car platforms in a mad

CHARLESTON, W. VA., October 6.-Ger from Huntington at 12 o'clock M., en rout ieneral Logan stopped off here and made speech to a large audience, and left two

CLARKBURG, W. VA., October 6 .- Two Lipscomb, each about 12 years of age, be is thought amputation of the arm will be Pecial Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

GRAFTON, W. VA., October 6.—Miss Regina Jamison, of Wheeling, an inmate of the Weston asylum, hung lerself with a sheet Sunday night. The coroner's jury returned a verdict exonorating the officials from blame as to carelessness. The re-mains will reach Wheeling Tuesday morn-tional Committee. Senator Gorman said might have embarrassed us a good deal.'

Said I: "I do not understand that the Said I: "I do not understand that the Republicans have expected to carry West Virginia, but merely that they thought they would reduce the Democratic majority there."
"Our trouble," said Mr. Gorman, "in that State has always been to get our Democratic vote fully out. Our majority has fallen to three or four thousand, whereas we have, when everybody votes, fifteen to twenty thousand majority. It is the size twenty thousand majority. It is the size of this majority which has produced the apathy. You take the kanawha District—there we, have $,000 majority, but it is one apt to run down to 2,000, bemarred somewhat by the fact that an arrangement had been made for Blaine to go to Marietta to-night after the procession was over here. This kept a number from attending from the upper part of Wood county. However, the reception was a success in every particular and the city as promised was frescoed in bright red.

Soon after supper clubs began forming for the procession.

A DISTINGUISHED FLOPPER.

But the sensation of the day was not the procession nor the fire works, but the flop of Charles T. Caldwell, law partner of D. H. Leonard, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee. He not only flopped, but he made a speech to-night from the public platform renouncing all allegiance to the Democratic party. He for the reception was a succession and therefore, losing it, we are open to the accusation of losing strength. That question was considerable when Senator Thurman's name came forward to be the Democratic enablidate of the Committee of the Democratic party. He fresident. It was at once said that Ohio President. It was at once said that Ohio allegiance to the Democratic party. He before the Democratic party. He look a manly stand and made an eloquent speech. The Democrats tried to hoot him down with cries of, "How much are you paid?" "Any man can make a speech when he is paid for it!"

Mr. Caldwell was not daunted, but stuck it out the close.

The Democratic tried to hoot him could be caused the property of the property of the State of New York because we felt that we could carry this state, but could probably not carry Ohio. We do not give out that we expect it."

PUCK SUED,

And an Interesting History Likely to Open Up to the Public Gaze. New York, October 6.—There was much surprise expressed in journalistic circles o-day at the news of the suit brought against the proprietors and editor of Puck, the comic weekly, by B. B. Valentine. known. The former is a writer of short lso is a story writer, and the author of "Fitznoodle Papers," which have appeared in Puck for many years. Mr. Bunner was seen at his home to-day, and said: "I must ask you to excuse me if I refuse to say anything whatever about the matter for the present." Mr. Valentine, who was found at the Lotus (Glub, said: "Yes, it is true that I have brought three actions arising from my interest in the business conduct of Puck. For some time past various disagreements have existed between the conductors of that paper in regard to its policy and management. The principal suit is for $50,000 for breach of contract, and for an accounting. This will secure the legal definition not only of my position, but of all of the conductors in their relations to each other. The suit will involve the whole history of the publication since it was started in 1877, since which time I have been actively engaged with others in its conduct." It is expected that the revelations in these suits will be most interesting, and that good reason will be shown why attacks upon Mr. Blaine in that paper should not be heeded. Fitznoodle Papers," which have ap-

DEMOCRATIC REFORM.

The Tale a Hotel Register Tells-The Kind of Statesmen Pillsbury and Fellows Are. Their Work in Other Campaigns and

COLUMBUS, October 6.-The Neal House Thomas A. Hendricks, John R. Fellows and Eben F. Pillsbury. These eminent Democrats are traveling together, and the thought very strange that he is willing to appear in public witn them as companions WHO "EX-GOV." PILLSBURY IS.

Their Present Mission in Ohio.

In 1879 Pillsbury hatched the Garcelon the result of this exploit he left the State with the penitentiary staring him in the face, and has never been back since except to take a hand in another job of villatiny. The record of an official investigation, containing, among other things, the photo-lithographic fac similes of his letters, shows what a close call the penitentiary had on him.

AND FELLOWS TOO. South, performed some not very creditable south, periodical solite not very creditable service in the Confederacy, and got back to New York in time to be one of Boss Tweed's most serviceable tools. The New York Times, now booming for Cleveland and Hendricks, and which probed the Tweed lethery to the bottom, can furnish very interesting chapters in Fellows' history.

HUNTING IN PAIRS. attempting to steal the State of Maine, They started at Portland, separated, came together at Augusta, went off again and met at Bangor. It was to be a campaign of hard cash, and these statesmen wer distributing the "boodle."

In 1880 they turned up in Ohio, and played their old trick of meeting and sep-arating, covering the State with loops. It was understood then that they were the almoners of Democratic bounty, and the Republican press tore them out. Now they are come again, this time as the trav-eling companions of Cleveland, Hendricks and Reform. Their presence is noticed with interest, and it is probable that de-tectives will be put on their track to watch them. Their speech-making is supposed to be only a cover for their finer work.

ral assignment of J. W. Rosenthal & Co., eral assignment of J. W. Rosenthal & Co., one of the largest clothing manufacturing firms in this city, was filed in the County Clerk's office this morning. The assignee is Louis Gresheimer, of Chicago. Claims of preferred creditors amount to nearly $1,000,000. The real extent of the failure cannot be learned until the assignee's schedule is filed.

NEWS NOTES. .

It snowed at Quebec yesterday Speaker Carlisle spoke at Point Pleas-nt, W. Va , yesterday.

There was a rot among strikers and laborers on the new court house at Pitisburgh yesterday, but nobody was killed. A mill belonging to the Newton paper company at Holyoke, was burned Saturday. Loss $150,000. Insurance $15,000. A fire in the Hecla mine at Calumet, Mich., has raged since Saturday night. I'wo lives were lost and others are in dan-

At the New York postoffice four large diamonds, valued at $10,000, were found in the mails of the steamer Brittania and

The issue of standard dollars for the week ending October 4th was $491,097. For the corresponding period of last year $11,500 $61,500.

The body of a colored girl aged 11 years, who had been assaulted and murdered, was found near Mortonsville, Albemarie

At Higginsport, O., during a Democratic demonstration Saturday night, Robert Shaw shot Kendall Diver through the heart. The murders swas arrested. At Lockett's Camp, Georgia, F. M. Faulkner, a white convict, planged into the river and tried to escape. He was shot and killed by a negro convict named Doc

Jackson.

John F. Steinman, the oldest merchant in Pennsylvania, died on Sunday on his farm in the southern part of Lancaster county, aged 05. He was a veteran of the war of 1812.

The Comptroller of the Currency authorizes a positive denial of the published report that a number of special bank examiners have been appointed in Ohio and other States for political purposes.

At Chicago Minnie Brooks, who was

BUCKHANNON, W. VA., October 4.-Toopened with religious services, conducted

The reports of committees were called for, and the various committees passed their reports to the Secretary.

their reports to the Secretary.

By reference to the minutes of the Conference some idea may be obtained of the quantum of work accomplished by these committees. While the work is various in character, one would be surprised to find how much research and inquiry is involved to thoroughly accomplish it.

The Committees of Examination are important bodies to those members of the Conference who have not yet completed the course of study. While pursuing their studies during the year there is a "hanging" question in the mind of the student as to what kind of a committee they will have at the coming conference and what the character of the examination.

We would say by sefected the conference and what the character of the examination.

in sound was more than compensated in Sense.

Owing to certain peculiar customs of the chur

Owing to certain peculiar customs of Fastern nations the women of the church can accomplish work inaccessible to the missionary of the opposite sex. In medicine, teaching, Bible reading and general civilizing and christianizing the natives of India and China, the good women of the church through the agency of the Womans Foreign Missionary Society, are doing a work worthy of all commendation. Rev. Dr. Smith, editor of the Putsburgh Christian Advocate, addressed the conference, representing that paper on a paying basis and in a general hourishing condition. The report of the Committee on Periodicals, as will appear in the miautes of the conference, shows the periodical inof the conference, shows the periodical interests of the church in good condition.

Many of them flourishing as never before.

The Doctor assured the Conference that it was remembered by his venerable father, c. Rev. Wesley Smith, who was formerly a member of this Conference, by reading a very interesting communication from him to the Conference. Many are the Methodists of West Virginia whose hearts are yet gladdened by the remembrance of the venerable patriarch.

This seems to be a time of change in this Conference. On the call for changes of relation many called for a change—some superannuated—while a goodly number were received on trial and by transfer to take their places, but there will be occasion to draw upon the local ranks to some extent.

Rev.W. K. Long, State Bible Agent for the American Bible Society, addressed the Conference on the interests he represents, and announced that the Colporteurs within the State had reported 25,000 families in the bounds of the State found destitute of the Holy Scriptures. The canvass is being vigorously prosecuted and every family that will have a Bible in its midst will be supplied either by purchase or donation. The Society is now making its fourth general supply, involving a vast special Dispete to the Intelligencer.

Wheeling District Appointments.

conference adjourned to-day. The follow-ing preachers were appointed to the speaker Carnste spoke at Point Pleasant, W. Va, yesterilay.

Tammany Hall made Congressional nominations last night.

The President is expected in Washington the latter part of this week.

Republicans held their own fully in Connecticut local elections yesterday.

Mississippi Republicans rejected the Greenbackers.

At Tamworth, Ontario, there was a riot among Italian railroad laborers, and the town is in a state of siege.

There was a riot among strikers and laborers on the new court house at Pittsburgh yesterday, but nobody war killed.

A mill belonging to the Verytogrees.

Wheeling District: Rev. George E. Hite, Presiding Elder; Benwood, C. J. Price; Cameron, B. Isan; Dallas, G. R. Copeland; Fulton, to be supplied; Greene, Taylor, Richmond and Marshall, O. J. Moundsville, W. E. Loomis, Moundsville circuit, to be supplied; Pleasant Valley, R. E. Woodruff; Short Creek and Liberty, M. F. Dryden; Triadelphia, Thomas Cotton.

Wheeling District: Rev. George E. Hite, Presiding Elder; Benwood, C. J. Price; Cameron, B. Isan; Dallas, G. R. Copeland; Fulton, to be supplied; Greene, Taylor, Richmond and Marshall, O. J. Moundsville, W. E. Loomis, Moundsville circuit, to be supplied; Pleasant Valley, R. E. Woodruff; Short Creek and Liberty, M. F. Dryden; Triadelphia, Thomas Cotton.

Wheeling District: Rev. George E. Hite, Presiding Elder; Benwood, C. J. Price; Cameron, B. Isan; Dallas, G. R. Copeland; Fulton, to be supplied; Forene, Taylor, Richmond and Marshall, O. J. Moundsville, W. E. Loomis, Moundsville, W. E. Loomis, Moundsville, A. B. Rohrabaugh; New Martinsville, A. B. Rohrabaugh; New Martinsville, A. B. Rohrabaugh; New Martinsville, Creek, J. W. Griffith; Thompson Chapel, S. Loomis, S. Loomis, Forene, Taylor, Richmond and Marshall, O. J. Moundsville, W. E. Loomis, Thompson Chapel, S. Loomis, Tho Wheeling District: Rev. George E. Hite,

A SHREWD SWINDLE

A Cincinnati Jeweler who Made False Rep-resentations and "Went up." Boston, October 6.—A special from Providence says: The failure of Emil Dahlbeimer & Co., jewelers of Cincinnati. has caused much excitement among manufacturing jewelers in this city and Attle. borough, who appear to have become in volved to the extent of $20,000 to $30,000 From statements of those who are in a position to know, including the manager of stion to know, including the manager of Dun's Mercantile. Agency, it appears that the whole affair is a deliberately planned swindle. July 28th last Dahlheimer called at Dun's Mercantile Agency here and made a showing to the effect that he was worth from $20,000 to $30,000 in stock and fixtures and owed between $1,000 and fixtures and owed between $4,000 and $5,000, which was his whole indebtedness So,000, which was his whole indebtedness. He promised to substantiate the statement but failed to do so. It has always been surmised that he was connected with Chas. J. and Jos. Steinson, who recently failed, but he made a positive denial. It has since been ascertained that his denial has since been ascertained that his denial is untrue. Among those in this city of whom he bought goods and who have sent them are J. C. Richardson, Atwood & Colwell, Wm. Hamilton & Co., Cavey & Williams, John McClery, Chas. S. Pine, W. R. Richards, Wm. Butt and Babbitt & Cameron.

mills of Oliver Bres. & Phillips clos day in honor of the Grand Army demonstration. It is thought the firm and their standing to-morrow and work be resumed. of ten percent at Dilworth, Porter & Co.'s of ten percent at Dilworth, Porter & Co.'s spike mill appears to have subsided, as the mill is working on full time to-day."

The strike among the Fourth, pool miners is at an end. Reports received to-day state that the miners are all at work at a reduction. The railroad coal tribunal was granted license by the court to-day, and the board will immediately endeavor to fix the mining rate for the winter months.

workmen affected by the proposed redu

McLean, editor and proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, will be married to-morcinnati Enquirer, will be married to-inor-row morning to Miss Emily T. Beale, daughter of General Beale, of this city. The ceremony will be private and in the presence only of the immediate relatives of the two families at the residence of tho bride's father, in Lafayette square. Rev. William Leonard, rector of St. John's Enisconal Church, will officiate Christian Temperance Women. hat the Woman's National Christian Temperance Union will meet at St. Louis October 22, 23, 24 and 25. Prominent lady speakers will occupy some of the church pulpits on the preceding Sanday. October 7 will be made a day of prayer by thousands of local unions throughout the country.

A Woman's Deed.

EDENBURG, PA., October 6 .- On Saturlay Gusta McKisson, wife of Silas McKisson, got her husband to load a shot gun, and going to a field where Polk Forbes was at work, discharged the weapon at him, the contents taking effect in his bowels and inflicting fatal wounds. The murder jis the result of an old family feud. The woman was arrested Exploding Gas Levels a Rotel.

Exploding Gas Levels a Hotel.

Kingston, Ost., October 6.—The Windsor hotel was entirely destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. The invastes narrowly escaped with their lives. Geo. McMahon, a telegraph operator, immped from the third story. His legs were broken. The female servants were everyly burned. The loss is estimated at $40,000. The fire was caused by an explosion of gas. LONDON, October 6—The Bennett-Mackay cable, which was only recently laid between Europe and America, is broken. It is supposed that the breakage was caused by ice-bergs.

CABLE CLICKS. It is reported that the French have oc-

During the past twenty four hours there were 36 fresh cases of cholera and 12 deaths at Naples. At Genoa there were 27 fresh cases and 22 deaths. Gladstone has issued a circular notify of his supporters to attend the opening of Parliament as he proposes at the earliest noment to submit important and pressing nuriness for the consideration of that body.

The city authorities of Paris desiring to take possession of a church on St. Nicholas des-champs, on account of widening the street, a delegate from the Prefecture was sent for that purpose. The curate refused to deliver the keys, when the crowd invaded the church, sang the Marsellaise, and committed other improprials.

E. M. McGillin & Co. OPENING DAY

Novelties

To-Morrow,

E.M.M'GILLIN & CO.'S.

The Ladies of Wheeling and Vicinity are cordially invited to be present at our Opening of Millinery for Fall and Winter as above announced.

Paris Trimmed Bonnets and Round Hats. - Hatter Edit

Misses' and Children's Felt

Domestic and French Felt Hats and Bonnets.

A GRAND DISPLAY.

All are Invited.